> The Lawyer's Invocation to Spring. na, on certain boughs and sprays, Now divers birds are heard to sing. And sundry flowers their beads upraise,

Hall to the coming on of Spring ! The songs of those said birds arouse The memory of our youthful hours As green as those said sprays and boughs, As fresh and sweet as those said flowers. The birds aforesaid-happy pairs -

Love, mid the aforesaid bought enshrines In freehold meets; themselves their heirs, O busiest term of Capid's court,

Where tender plaintiffs actions bring,-Season of frolic and of sport, Hall as aforesaid, coming Spring. H. P. H. BROWELL

BY JULIA C. R. DORE The church was dim and eilent With the howh before the prayer, Omly the solemn trembling Of the organ stirred the air;

Without, the sweet, still sonshine Where priest and people waited For the swelling of the psalm.

Slowly the door swung open And a little boby girl, brown-eyed, with brown air falling In many a wavy curl. With wall observe flushing hotly, bhy giances downward thrown, And small hands clasped before her, Stood in the aisle alone, Stood half abashed, half frightened, Unknowing where to go, While like a wind-rocked flower,

The form swayed to and fro ; In the little troubled face, As from side to side she wavered With a mute, imploring grace. It was but for a moment ;

What wonder that we smiled, By such a strange, sweet picture From buly thoughts beguiled? When up rose come one colly, And many an eye grew dim, As through the tender silence. He bore the child with him.

The sermon and the prayer) If when sometime I enter The "many munelone" fair, And stand abashed and drooping In the portals' golden glow, To show me where to-go!

When a man looks back into the dim vista of bygone years, about the only thing he can remen-ber are his mother's slipper, his first pair of boots, the old schoolmasier and the little rosy-checked school-girl who used to make his heart fluiter whenever she asked him for a bite of his chewing gum. Life was worth living for in those days, even though there wasn't much money in it.

though there wasn't much money in it.

If in our public schools any attention were bestowed upon the cultivation of the sense of beauty, the educated gentleman would not encourage by his admiration the vagaries of feminine fashions, not because of its changes — "warety is charming"—but because all the changes revolve round a centre of radically had taste, formed by two fixed ideas, viz. that the waist and the foot cannot be too small. Amid all the changes there is no being rid of the stiff contracted waist, really ngly, always so low down as to suggest the positive deformity of short lower limbs, and cruelly destructive to health, hor of the straight compressed classes, destroying the form of the foot, and turning the beautiful structure into a crippled bunch of bunions.—Ninsteath Century.

VANITY FAIR! T IS WITH PLEASURE WE ANNOUNCE that our Vanily Fair Tobacco and Cigarettes, in their various siyles, have been adopted by the Prench Government. Below we quote from the Rechester Democras and Comminder.

"It is a matter of pride to Rochester, as well as to the firm directly interested, that yesterday a Cable dispasch was received stating that the French Government had adopted the Tobacco and Charettes manufactured by Wm. S. Kimhall & Co., of this city. We should explain, perhaps, that all tobacco sold in France up to this time has been manufactured by the Government. Of late the domand for other makes has arisen, and the Government, to meet it, allowed English and A merican manufacturers to enter goods for competitive test with a view to the adoption of the best. The fact that Wm. S. Kimball & Co. have come out far ahead of all other manufacturers in both committee, is unmistiakable proof that their goods are the best the world produces. Their Tobacco and Cigarettes will henceforth be on asis in Paris as freely as in New York, but no other make, except the French, will be found theres. In other words, the French Government, on the report of its experts, declare the goods of
